

Human Sciences Encounters in Phnom-Penh: Researchers Profiles:ZUCKER Eve

Eve Zucker is currently a Visiting Scholar at UC San Diego's Department of Anthropology and a CAORC Senior Fellow at the Center for Khmer Studies in Cambodia where she is conducting research on the topics of morality, memory and social change. Dr. Zucker holds a Ph.D. in social anthropology from the London School of Economics and Political Science in the United Kingdom and an MA in cultural anthropology from the University of Wisconsin at Madison. In the past she had worked as a research intern for the Cambodia Genocide Program at YaleUniversity and she has also participated in various Cambodian higher education projects while in Cambodia. Since 1994 she lived and worked in Cambodia on four occasions for a total of 43 months, 13 of which were spent living in an upland Khmer village in southwestern Cambodia where she conducted her doctoral research concerning memory and the remaking of moral order in the aftermath of violence.