

Human Sciences Encounters in Phnom-Penh Researcher Profil

Sambo Klauth

Sambo Klauth graduated with Master's in Social Work and Master's in Theological Studies in 2012 from Baylor University. In Social Work, he chose Community Practice concentration and specialized in Human Trafficking in Cambodia. He also holds bachelor's degrees in Education, Management of Information System, and Psychology. From 2003-2009, he worked as a counselor for AFESIP, Social Service Officer for World Vision, and Child Protection Program Officer for Save the Children Norway-Cambodia Office.